Carl Schuler Announces Bid for Town Council Seat

Jacob Hoerger Reporting

CHAPEL HILL - Carl Schuler has put his name in the already crowded race for Chapel Hill Town Council.

"I'm really coming to the table as a concerned citizen," he says. "I take interest in the town's events, I follow the local Town Council forums, I am particularly interested in growth, and I'm also interested in existing neighborhoods and neighborhood preservation."

Schuler, a registered nurse, has served six years on the Vineyard Square Homeowner's Association and has also been involved in the IFC's Good Neighbor plan.

He says Chapel Hill can better leverage its relationship with UNC to promote growth and development.

"We've got the minds, and we've got the people with the knowledge, we just need to promote a more fertile environment for entrepreneurial resources."

Schuler joins what's shaping up to be the most competitive local race. For interviews with all nine Town Council candidates, as well as coverage of other races, click here.
